Dr. Farmer will survey the current training for residents in Global Health and Global Surgery more specifically.

She will review the burden of congenital anomalies worldwide to provide background and an example of the applicability of training.

Finally, she'll explain the development of Global Surgery training at UCSF under her mentorship, lessons learned, and the current and future training opportunities at UC Davis.

ABOUT THE SPEAKER

Dr. Farmer is the Chair of Surgery for UC Davis Health System. She is a member of the Royal College of Surgeons and the Institute of Medicine of the National Academies. In addition to her achievements in the field of fetal and pediatric surgery, Dr. Farmer has been a leader in the field of global health and a fierce advocate for the expansion of the role of surgeons in the field. During her time at UCSF she helped set up a partnership between the UCSF Department of Surgery and Makerere University in Kampala, Uganda. Over the course of her career she has become a nationally recognized voice advocating for the expansion of global surgery with articles and letters published in journals such as the Journal of the American College of Surgeons and JAMA. She authored the Surgical Interventions for Congenital Anomalies chapter in the recently published Surgery Volume of the Disease Control Priorities, 3rd Edition.

Global Health Night is a monthly occurrence, and we welcome your attendance! Meetings are held the first Tuesday of every month, from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m., in the Education Building, in Room 3202.
