

Dean's Monthly Global Health Night Featuring Dr. Julie Herlihy, MD, MPH

Thursday, October 1st, 6:30 p.m.

Education Building, Lecture Hall 1204

4610 X Street, Sacramento

Making a Difference Doesn't Count Unless it's Measured!

Monitoring and evaluation (M&E) is a critical part of sustainable global health initiatives, ensuring that goals are met and that improvement is ongoing through data collection and analysis. M&E links the practice of global health to public health principles. This will be an interactive session focused on global health program development and M&E. Attendees from all disciplines and levels are welcome.

ABOUT THE SPEAKER

Dr. Herlihy is a board-certified pediatrician with over 18 years of experience working in sub-Saharan Africa on community-based child survival projects. Currently, Dr. Herlihy serves as the Director of Pediatric Global Health at UC Davis, Department of Pediatrics. Previously, she was an Assistant Professor in Global Health and Pediatrics at Boston University's Center for Global Health & Development where she directed a Pediatric Global Health Research Fellowship and conducted operational research on maternal, child health service delivery for large scale programs in sub-Saharan Africa.

She has extensive experience in service delivery at both grass roots and national levels with particular interest in newborn care, pediatric nutrition and integration of HIV/AIDS care with common childhood illnesses. Clinically, Dr. Herlihy has worked as a pediatrician in California, Boston, Liberia, and Zambia. She completed her clinical training in pediatrics at Boston Medical Center and Boston Children's Hospital and she holds a medical degree from the University of Massachusetts Medical School, a Master of Public Health degree from the Harvard School of Public Health, and a Bachelor of Arts degree in biology and education from Brown University.

Global Health Night is a monthly occurrence, and we welcome your attendance! Meetings are held the first Thursday of every month from 6:30-7:30 pm in the Education Building, Room 1204.

The Office of the Dean for the School of Medicine will provide a light dinner. RSVP to Angela Carrasco at avcarras@ucdavis.edu
